CHRIS TAYLOR

Chris Taylor is a Cape Town based DJ, who has engraved his name in the South African dance music scene over the last few years. Chris was brought up in the city of Harare in Zimbabwe, where he started DJ'ing at house parties and birthdays at just 15 years of age, Chris soon outgrew the small party scene in Harare and decided to move on to pursue his passion for dance music in the Western Cape of South Africa.

He has since grown both globally and internationally headlining shows across Africa and Asia. Including two of the Top 100 Nightclubs in the world (Sky Garden in Bali & Modo Ultra Club in Beijing).

Over the years Chris sculpted his own style. Known for his smooth mixing and open format style, Chris has been known to jump between genres and play across the board."I don't care about genre's, if I like how it sounds I will play it!"

In March 2012 Chris was announced as the winner of the Avicii SA Tour DJ competition, a huge milestone in his career, he has since performed alongside some of the top DJ's & Producers in the world.

In February 2015 Chris was selected as one of very few local artists to play on the main stage at Ultra South Africa in Cape Town alongside some of the biggest names in dance music. Chris was included again in the line up for Ultra South Africa in 2016.

Chris has held down residencies at some of Cape Town's top clubs and bars including one of the highest ranking beach clubs in the World - Shimmy Beach Club.

Chris has also featured at some of the biggest festivals in Africa, including: Ultra South Africa (Main Stage 2015/2016), Rage Festival, Sound Of Summer (Namibia) Fun In The Sun, Nova Music Festival, One World New Years Festival, Neverland (Zimbabwe), Electric Vines and many more. Chris was the resident DJ for Neon Run South Africa where he played across the country to over 50000 people.

With an end goal of playing at Tomorrowland in the next few years, it is safe to say that there is a lot to come from Chris! Watch this space...

